

Mr. ENDO Kazuya

Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Japan to the Philippines

Ambassador ENDO Kazuya joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan in 1990 and has since held various key diplomatic positions. His overseas assignments include serving as First Secretary at the Embassy of Japan in the United Kingdom, Minister at the Embassy in China, and Counsellor at the Embassy in the United States. Domestically, he has held leadership roles in the Asian and Oceanian Affairs Bureau, the Foreign Policy Bureau, and the International Legal Affairs Bureau, covering areas such as China-Mongolia relations, economic treaties, and UN policy.

He has also served as Deputy Director-General for multiple bureaus, including the Asian and Oceanian Affairs Bureau and the Foreign Policy Bureau. In March 2024, he was appointed Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Japan to the Philippines.