

Noriyoshi Yamagami

Managing Executive Officer, Responsible for International Business Department, Tokyo
Metro Co., Ltd.

Noriyoshi Yamagami was appointed Managing Executive Officer in Tokyo Metro in June 2023 and is responsible for International Business Department. He graduated from the University of Tokyo with a Bachelor of Law in March 1987 and later obtained a M.A. in Political Science at Stanford University. Prior to his current position he worked in the Ministry of Land, Infrastructure, Transport and Tourism, where he held many posts over his 35-year career there mainly involved in railway and transport policies. He was also dispatched to the Embassy of Japan in the U.K. twice, once as Counsellor of Transport and once as Minister of Transport. During his career, he has worked on a variety of international tasks, among them in particular, promotion of railway system at overseas markets.