

Dr. NGUYEN ANH TUAN

Director, Institute for Tourism Development Research

Mr. Nguyen Anh Tuan is currently the Director of the Institute for Tourism Development Research under the Vietnam National Authority of Tourism (VNAT). He holds a Ph.D. in Political Economy from the Vietnam National University, Hanoi, obtained in 2010, and a Diploma in Tourism Management from the Salzburg Tourism and Hotel Management Institute, Austria.

He begins his career in 1993, over 30 years of experiences in the tourism sector, he held various important roles at the VNAT, including Secretary to the Chairman and Deputy Director of the Travel Department. Since 2015, he has served as the Director of the Institute for Tourism Development Research, contributing to the formulation and implementation of numerous key national tourism development strategies and policies.

Some of the significant projects are: Law on Tourism (2005, 2017), Resolution 08/NQ-TW of the Politburo; National action program on tourism; Vietnam tourism development strategy until 2030; Action program for Vietnam tourism development in the period 2021-2025; Project to assess the competitiveness of Vietnam tourism (2017) and many tourism development projects at provincial and district levels, etc.