

Moderator

NAKAGAWA Naoto

Director of International Environment Office,
Ocean Development and Environment Policy Division,
Maritime Bureau,
Ministry of Land, Infrastructure, Transport and Tourism of Japan

Mr. Nakagawa has 25 years experiences of government in the Japan. In his carrier, he engaged in making policy and national laws related to maritime security, safety, marine environment protection and shipping. During the Financial crisis of 2007–2008, he worked at the Economic Bureau of Ministry of Foreign Affairs and engaged in G8, G20 leaders' summit through supporting the Sherpa, and also he participated in serval committees and Working Parties of OECD. From 2017 to 2020, he worked at Japan External Trade Organization Houston office, and worked together with major oil and gas companies and arranged establishing the Nippon Foundation & DeepStar joint program, after the program was established, he organized launching 20 specific technology development project between the US oil and gas companies and Japanese manufacturers by leveraging his experience of patrol vessel design and construction project management at the past position in Japan Coast Guard.

He earned BA degree (engineering -naval architecture) from Kyushu University in Japan