Joint Business from Asia to North America

- An integrated travel experience from check-in to arrivals when traveling on American Airlines or Japan Airlines, including One Stop Security for passengers transiting Narita to a third country
- Joint sales programs and contracts provide far more schedule/product options than either airline could provide alone
- An assigned Account Coordinator facilitates the negotiation and implementation process, complemented by ongoing local account management from each carrier

...while improving connectivity through “hub-to-spoke” services

Moving Forward

- American Airlines remains committed to providing safe and reliable air transportation between the U.S. and Japan
 - U.S.-Japan is the second largest aviation market in the world (and the largest between the U.S. and Asia)
 - Haneda route cases show commitment
 - State-of-the-art aircraft with upgraded amenities flying between the two countries
 - American's new HND-LAX flight times provide more connections on both ends – allowing connections to more than 15 cities in Japan and 30 in the U.S. that were not previously served
- American Airlines looks forward to additional Haneda service to support the upcoming 2020 Olympics

Thank you!
