

Profile (Panelists)

Julie Oettinger, Managing Director, International Regulatory & Policy, Delta Air Lines

---

Julie Oettinger joined Delta Air Lines in January 2015 where she holds the position of Managing Director, International Regulatory and Policy. She is based in the Hague, Netherlands. Prior to that, Julie Oettinger served from June 2010 to November 2014 as Assistant Administrator for International, Policy and the Environment at the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) in Washington, DC. Prior to joining FAA, Ms. Oettinger was Managing Director for International and Regulatory Affairs at United Airlines. Ms. Oettinger previously served as Assistant General Counsel at US Airways from 1998 to 2002 where she was responsible for all international legal affairs and all regulatory matters. Ms. Oettinger also was Attorney Advisor in the Legal Advisor's Office at the U.S. Department of State where she was Legal Advisor to the aviation negotiation team, Special Assistant to the Under Secretary for International Security Affairs and Legal Advisor at the U.S. Embassy Panama. Ms. Oettinger received a B.A. from Tufts University and a J.D. from the University of Michigan.

