

Dr. Siradol SIRIDHARA

Assistant Professor, Cluster of Logistics and Railway Engineering

Director of Railway Transportation Curriculum, Mahidol University

Graduated with his Ph.D. in civil engineering (transportation) from Virginia Tech. He spent two years of his professional career in the United States as a transportation planner. He continued his career in Thailand with Wilbur Smith Associates for eight years before taking a lecturer position at Suranaree University of Technology. He has become a lecturer at the Cluster of Logistics and Railway Engineering, Mahidol University from 2017 until present.

Mr. Siridhara has more than 25 years of professional experience in traffic engineering and transport planning. He has worked on many government and private sector projects. These involve various aspects of transportation engineering and feasibility studies including railway engineering, transportation planning, parking studies, traffic impact assessment and project economic and financial evaluation.