

Dr. NGUYEN ANH TUAN

Director of Institute for Tourism Development Research
Vietnam National Authority of Tourism
Ministry of Culture, Sport and Tourism

He served as a member of various departments in Vietnam National Authority of Tourism until 2015. Since 2015, he is appointed as the Director of the Institute for Tourism Development Research. During his career, he has been involving in numerous projects and tasks in advising on policy development. He has consulted on the development and implementation of national legal policies on tourism, strategies, planning, programs and projects for tourism development. Some of the significant projects are: Law on Tourism (2005, 2017), Resolution 08/NQ-TW of the Politburo; National action program on tourism; Vietnam tourism development strategy until 2030; Action program for Vietnam tourism development in the period 2021-2025; Project to assess the competitiveness of Vietnam tourism (2017) and many tourism development projects at provincial and district levels, etc.

He also organizes and implements policies and plans for tourism development and manage and inspect tourism activities; surveys and builds tourism products for travel businesses; presides over proposals and organize many tourism events, conferences, and seminars; Summarizing the practical implementation of policies and legal documents on tourism.

He has participated in hosting or presenting as a tourism expert at many conferences and seminars on tourism at national, regional and local levels. For scientific research, he has successfully chaired 3 ministerial-level scientific projects, participated in 1 national-level project and a dozen of ministerial-level projects, and successfully directed the implementation of many ministerial-level projects of the Tourism Development Research Institute.

He has participated in evaluation councils for doctoral theses, master's theses, and theses of students from many universities, participated in tourism training for students.