

Mr. Paul PRUANGKARN

Chief of Staff,
Pacific Asia Travel Association (PATA)

Mr. Paul hails from New York and has spent over a decade living in Thailand. Prior to PATA, Mr. Paul worked at an Internet start-up in Bangkok as the Senior Business Development Manager, overseeing its daily operations and B2B hotels sales partnerships, and as the Sub-Editor at Radio Thailand English Language News, where he also worked as an on-air personality. Before moving to Thailand, he spent five years as the Newsroom Supervisor at Business Wire, a subsidiary of Berkshire Hathaway, working with clients across the US, London, Paris, Berlin, and Tokyo.

He has also worked for such companies as Reuters, British Petroleum, and Traditional Home Magazine. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree majoring in Classics with a concentration in Mediterranean Art and Archaeology from the University at Buffalo in New York.